2021 WILLAMETTE VALLEY ROSÉ | Artist Series

ADELSHEIM Artist Series

For decades, Ginny Adelsheim's iconic hand-drawn illustrations graced our bottles. Today we continue that artistic heritage with our "Artist Series" Rosé labels. Beginning with the 2019 vintage, each year our Willamette Valley Rosé will feature artwork by a talented, up-and-coming local artist who shares our belief that to create something great, you must push boundaries and take risks.

ABOUT THE ARTIST Catherine Freshley

Catherine Freshley is a landscape painter from Portland, Oregon. She loves to make colorful art that makes people happy. Freshley's paintings capture what a place feels like, but she wants viewers to layer on their own memories and meanings. Her work can be found in healthcare and hospitality settings, and in the homes of collectors nationally.

"I was fortunate to visit Adelsheim several times over the past year, and in every season. The land and expansive views are gorgeous, and I love the tidy rows of vines dancing over the rolling hills -- there is so much visual movement in the landscape. But I was absolutely awestruck by the vibrant foliage that blooms around the tasting room. It stopped me in my tracks and I knew I had to paint it. This, along with the layers of hills feel so Adelsheim and it is such an honor to now be a part of Ginny Adelsheim's tradition of capturing this special place."

2021 HARVEST

The 2021 Vintage was one for the books, and not just because we were celebrating our 50th Anniversary! The growing season got an early jump thanks to the warmer than normal temperatures, and one of the driest March and Aprils ever recorded. Our vineyards endured remarkably well through a rain event right at bloom followed by record-breaking heat for 3 consecutive days. Mother Nature graced us with quite literally a perfect harvest and truly incredible fruit quality that we are beyond excited about.

VINEYARD

The grapes for this wine come entirely from our LIVE certified estate vineyards in the Northern Willamette Valley.
